Delegate Joseph was a passenger through the city en route to Washington on Wednesday night's train. In conversation he expressed the opinion that soon after congress convenes a law will be passed to settle the vexed New Mexico land grant question. As to the exact nature of the measure, he would not venture an opinion, saying it would necessarily be some sort of a compromise between the different schemes now before the house. Mr. Joseph also said that other measures of importance to the Territory would pass congress at the coming session.—Optic.

The trial of J. H. O'Brien for the murder of John Bingle in last June, was continued on Wednesday evening, the testimony for the defense closing followed by the arguments of counsel which were not completed until yesterday morning at 11:30, when the case was given to the jury, who remained out until 7:30 o'clock in the evening when they came into court and announced that they had reached a verdict. After being polled it was ascertained that their verdict was murder in the first degree with the penalty of imprisonment for life. This morning Jose D. Sena, counsel for the accused, gave notice that he would make a motion for a new trial. Throughout the trial was ably conducted by Prosecuting Attorney Major M. A. Breeden, both by his arrangement of the overwhelming testimony against the defendant and his masterly arguments to the jury, showing to the members of the latter conclusively the facts upon which they afterward based their verdict, which is one that seems to meet the approval of all who were in any way cognizant of the circumstances, or who were present at the trial.—Optic.

SOLID CERRILLOS.
A New Railroad, Bank and Smelter Promised the Little Pittsburg.

Excellent news from parties on the inside of industrial affairs in that section of the county are at hand from Cerrillos to-day.

First of all it is stated that Supt. Raunheim of the consolidated San Pedro interests has been there several days looking over the town plat for a desirable site for a big copper smelter, the idea being given out that the San Pedro plant as it at present exists is to be removed to Cerrillos and its capacity doubled. This move has been decided upon because it has been found to be less expensive to haul the ore to the coal, coke and flux at Cerrillos than to transport these necessities to San Pedro where the ore is. In connection with this it is also stated that the A. T. & S. F. company has decided to construct a branch line to San Pedro, tapping several mining camps on the route, with the object of hauling the ore out of the mountains for treatment at Cerrillos. A certain number of tons haul per day has been guaranteed the railway, hence its decision to build the branch. It is further learned that Schmidt Bros., the well known Wagon Mound merchants who recently purchased inside property at Cerrillos, have decided to erect at once an extensive business block to be occupied by them as a general store and banking house. Thus the Little Pittsburg's future continues to grow brighter with each passing day. The wonderful natural resources are certainly there, and it is now only a question of short time before the boom will be on with a characteristic western rush.—New Mexican.

Our Christmas Drawing.
Two solid gold watches, one gentleman's and one lady's—will be drawn by the cash subscribers to the RUSTLER who pay three dollars for the paper previous to Christmas day and secure a number. These watches are both very handsome and perfect time pieces, carrying the guarantee of Mr. J. R. Hudson, the Santa Fe Jeweler who sold them to this office. Each cash subscriber secures the paper for the year 1889, besides having a chance to draw one or the other of these watches. If you are already a subscriber, send an extra copy to your relative or friend at a distance and help us out. The watches can be seen at this office.

The manner of drawing the gold watches will be by placing each subscriber's number, as it appears opposite his name on the list, on tickets, the tickets to be placed in a box, shaken up and drawn by a child until the ones are called that correspond with those attached to a watch, which will then become the property of the subscriber whose name on the list corresponds with that number.

The RUSTLER wants 100 new subscribers by Christmas day, and each subscriber who pays three dollars for a year's subscription before Christmas day, will be entitled to the paper for the year 1889, and will also get a chance in a lady's or gentleman's gold watch, which will be drawn by some one of these subscribers, on Christmas day. The watch will be purchased from and on the guarantee of some jeweler at Santa Fe or Albuquerque. The paper takes this means of increasing its circulation and of raising the money—$200.00—with which to make the last payment on its office, thus placing it substantially upon its feet. There should be enough people in the local territory of the paper to make up this number, who are not now subscribers, and we hope they will come to the front at once. The numbers are now ready and each subscriber will get his ticket. Those who send us subscriptions by mail will be forwarded a receipt and ticket by return mail. The drawing will be placed in the hands of a committee and is guaranteed to be fair. The name of the lucky drawer will be published in the New Year's number.

Every man who has interests in mining property or land in the vicinity of Cerrillos, should be a subscriber to the RUSTLER.
